

INFORMAL CONTRACTS

The California Department of Education has set the bid threshold of Informal contracts "Not to Exceed" the amount of $90,200.

HOW DOES A SMALL CONTRACTOR GET AN INFORMAL CONTRACT WITH LAUSD?

- Become safety pre-qualified prior to bidding through the LAUSD's Safety Prequalification process. The Questionnaire is available on the web site at www.laschools.org/new-site/prequalification/.
- Visit the LAUSD Maintenance and Operations (M&O) web site at <http://mo.laschools.org/fis/existing-facilities/m-and-o/bidwalks> for the Informal contracts that are currently offered for bid.
- Informal contracts are now awarded using a best value methodology, based on performance on LAUSD projects and compliance with LAUSD requirements.

WHAT IS REQUIRED TO BE QUALIFIED TO BID AN INFORMAL CONTRACT?

- Be safety prequalified prior to bidding.
- Informal contracts over $15,000 require a performance bond; those under $15,000 do not require bonding.
- Prevailing wages apply to ALL CONTRACTS $15,000 and up. Prevailing wages are applied to the overall contract price, which means that subcontractors also pay prevailing wages, regardless of their portion of the contract.
- A specialty license is typically required, depending on the type of project.
- Worker's Compensation Insurance.
- General Liability Insurance coverage of $1,000,000 single occurrence and $2,000,000 aggregate.
- Commercial Automotive Insurance coverage of $1,000,000 combined single limit.
- All insurance coverage must be provided through a California-admitted Insurance Company with an A-VII or higher rating, according to the A.M. Best Company standards. OCIP is NOT provided on Informal Contracts.
- All specialty contracts that exceed $20,000, and are funded in whole or in part by monies from local bonds, are subject to the Project Stabilization Agreement.
- California Department of Industrial Relations Public Works Contractor Registration.
